As the season for planting has arrived, the subscriber would respectfully call the attention of his friends and the public generally to his large and extensive collection of PRUIT TREES, embracing, perhaps, a selection that has not been surpassed for the climate of Virginia, and nearly all propagated from fruit bearing trees in his own ordered. He would here take occasion to say, that, at the Agricultural Fair, in the Fall of 1816, in Richmond, the Committee on Orchards unlessitatingly awaded him the premium on both Apple Fail of 1816, in Richmond, the Committee on Orchards unhesitatingly awarded him the premium on both Apple and Peach Orchards, and also for the best exhibition of Fruis on the day of the Fair.

Catalogues, with directions for planting, may be had at William Palmer's Seed and Prough Store, at Peyton Johnston's Apothecary Store, and at the Office of the Southern Pianter, where any orders left will be punctually attended to; and letters, post paid, addressed to the subscriber, near Richmond, will receive prompt attention.
